

Social Media and E-Services

Kimberly K. Wiley, MPA
Technology and Safety Program Specialist
Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence

It's Up To You

How to Teens Communicate

- Social Networks
- Internet
- Texting
- Instant Message
- Blogs

Searching for an identity/ Projecting an Identity

Who Am I?

E-services for our Youth

- E-services are electronic interactive resources that are available for youth in distressing situations, they take on many forms
 - IM chat
 - Message Boards
 - Q&As
 - Advice columns
 - E-mail
 - Facebook

www.loveisrespect.org

- Aside from hosting the only National Dating Abuse Helpline:
1-866-331-9474
- They also offer an online chat option where you can chat via IM with a trained peer advocate during certain hours.

www.safespace.org

- Ask Anything – Currently under construction
- Forum for teens to ask anything and get their questions answered
- View column archives: http://www.thesafespace.org/digital_abuse/

Column Archives Include:

- Breaking Up
- Digital Abuse
- Domestic Violence
- Drugs and Alcohol
- Emotional Abuse
- Help a Friend
- Sexual Assault and More

www.teenwire.com

- Ask the Experts- A teen website hosted by Planned Parenthood
- Teens can ask questions and review answers that were given to other teens
- Various topics covering:
 - Dating, Family, Friends
 - Safer sex & STDs
 - Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Questioning
 - Teen Pregnancy

www.RAINN.org

Rape Abuse Incest National Network – RAINN’s E-crew

- Social Networking - post banners, bulletins, bumper stickers and/or content on your personal page
- Blogging Brigade - post on your personal blog and/or some of your favorite outside blogs; post on your personal and/or some of your favorite websites
- Email Outreach - send out news updates on statistics, events, public policy decisions
 - ex. listserves, community organizations
- Social Bookmarking - select topics that match your interests, share and recommend to others
- Photo/Video Sharing - upload and share photos and/or videos from RAINN events

Statewide E-services

- Teen PCAR- www.teenpcar.org
 - Pennsylvania Coalition Against Rape Teen Webpage
 - Q&A section
- 2nd Floor Youth Helpline- www.2ndfloor.org
 - New Jersey’s Youth Helpline
 - Message Board
 - E-mail

Additional Resources

- www.athinline.org – Quizzes, Contest Winners, Digital Storytelling
- www.thatsnotcool.com – Interactive quizzes and games, and digital storytelling
- www.teenangels.org- Students 13-18yr old volunteers trained in online safety, privacy and security. Run programs in schools to spread awareness
- www.wiredsafety.org
- www.stopcyberbullying.org

